It is no secret that the Bay Area is an increasingly expensive place to live—and an increasingly difficult place to thrive if you are faced with an unexpected crisis. For many people, one missed paycheck due to a layoff or medical emergency can have a ripple effect, leading to possible homelessness and hunger. The help that the Chronicle Season of Sharing Fund provides is critical to keep thousands of individuals and families in their homes and put food on their tables as they get back on track.

Through the generosity of more than 5,600 donors, our 2018-2019 campaign raised $9.3 million. Since 1986, we have distributed an astounding $138 million to help prevent homelessness and hunger throughout the Bay Area. Thanks to donors like you, last year we provided housing and critical needs assistance to more than 4,100 individuals and families—within those families were 4,500 children. The $1.3 million we distributed to area food banks equated to 2.7 million meals.

Your support serves as a lifeline for people facing crises. Every dollar donated goes directly to assist those in need, as the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle cover all the Fund’s administrative expenses.

Thank you for being such a critical part of the Season of Sharing Fund. With your support and partnership, we will continue to strive to help those who are struggling to thrive.

With much gratitude,

Bill Nagel

TOGETHER, WE HELPED...

Tyler Roberson and her two children stay in their home after she was laid-off from work with only one week’s notice and facing possible eviction.

Patti Medina pay her rent when she was unable to work for six weeks while her daughter was hospitalized in intensive care.

Dora Castillo and her young daughter, Rina, pay rent in 2002. Now in 2019, Rina is a caseworker helping people receive Season of Sharing Fund assistance.

Michael Dennis move out of his truck and into his own apartment after being homeless for two years.

Generally, 85 percent of the total funds are distributed for Housing Assistance and Critical Family Needs, and the remaining 15 percent is allocated to Food Banks for emergency food services.

Four percent of Housing Assistance/Critical Family Needs grants are paid to Fiscal Agents for fee management. The fees are covered by the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund.

TOTAL includes a one-time grant of $14,099 to Santa Cruz in 1989.
