Creating stability for families overcoming unexpected crises
Latoya Foskey, a mother who faced a childcare crisis during the pandemic that resulted in job loss. We paid her rent for two months. While unemployed, she obtained a nursing license. She now works as a school nurse and at a skilled nursing facility, which allows for a better schedule to care for her children.

Alisha Gutierrez, who contracted COVID in October 2020, and was hospitalized for three months. We helped pay her mortgage. Alisha’s husband, Jesus, who also caught COVID in 2020, has recovered and is back at work, and Alisha is able to work from home while using oxygen tanks.

Together we helped...

First and foremost, thank you! Your generosity and compassion serve as a lifeline of support for thousands of people striving to overcome crises. Their ability to persevere and get back on their feet is fueled in part by your generous spirit.

Together, we are making sure that hardworking Bay Area individuals and families do not have to face life-disrupting challenges on their own. In 2021-2022, support from donors like you made it possible for us to cover 4,752 months of rent and provide 5,029,500 nutritious meals.

We know many of our Bay Area neighbors are struggling with the rapid increase of food and gas prices, housing costs and other necessities for living. One disruption to their livelihood – a sudden layoff, reduced work hours, an eviction, a medical crisis – can have a cascading effect leading to possible homelessness and hunger. With your support, we continue to lift people up as they overcome short-term crises.

As always, the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle cover our administrative expenses, so 100 percent of your support goes to helping people remain in their homes, put healthy meals on their tables and cover other urgent needs.

On behalf of the thousands of individuals and families we serve, thank you for making such a profound difference in their lives.

With admiration and gratitude,

Kevin Swanson

Together, we helped...
Distribution of Funds 2021–2022
Keeping Bay Area Families Housed and Food on their Tables

Generally, 85 percent of the total funds are distributed for Housing Assistance and Critical Needs, and the remaining 15 percent is allocated to Food Banks for emergency food services. In order to meet real-time needs and be responsive to community crises, we work closely with our county partners and direct funds accordingly. All administrative expenses are covered by the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle. As a result, 100 percent of the money raised by the Chronicle Season of Sharing Fund goes directly to help the families and communities we serve.

*Months of rent are an approximation.
