CHRONICLE SEASON OF SHARING FUND

For far too many Bay Area residents, one missed paycheck can have a ripple effect, opening the door to potential homelessness and hunger. Your donations make it possible for us to help stabilize a family and ensure a household remains housed long after a crisis passes.

Together, we can give a family the breathing room they need to get back on track and help make sure they do not have to face life-disrupting challenges on their own. Through your support, we were able to cover Leticia's rent so she could stay in her home with her grandchildren after the devastating death of her daughter:

"I am very grateful. There are people who really need the help. It prevents us from becoming homeless and helps us move forward."

In 2022-2023, you proved that generosity is on the rise in the Bay Area by making it possible for us to cover 4,939 months of rent and provide 4,773,307 nutritious meals.

As always, every dollar donated goes directly to assist those in crisis, as the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle cover all the Fund's administrative expenses.

Thank you for being a good neighbor to Leticia and thousands of other people striving to get back on their feet in the Bay Area. Our work is possible because of you.

With our gratitude,

Kevin Swanson

Together WE HELPED...

Leticia Cervantes started raising her grandchildren after her daughter died. Then her twin granddaughters needed multiple trips to the ER for painful headaches, making it impossible to pay medical bills and the rent. We covered their housing for a month, helping them avoid homelessness and move past this crisis.

Together WE HELPED...

Alfred Janske survived job loss, foreclosure, homelessness, and even being struck by lightning. Then disaster threatened to strike again when he lost his dear companion and autistic younger brother, George, along with his disability income. We provided Alfred with assistance to stabilize the rent until his new retirement income started.

Together WE HELPED

Jetoshia Jefferson lost her mom unexpectedly to COVID-19 while recovering from a car accident that broke her back and left her unable to work for months. But her mother's death put her on a path to safety and inspired a plot to escape her abusive relationship. We covered the security deposit for an apartment that is her new haven with her dad, twin sister, and dog, Barney.

Distribution of Funds 2022 – 2023

KEEPING BAY AREA FAMILIES HOUSED AND FOOD ON THEIR TABLES

Generally, 85 percent of our total funds are distributed for housing assistance and critical needs, and the remaining 15 percent is allocated to Bay Area food banks for emergency food services. In order to meet real-time needs and be responsive to community crises, we work closely with our county partners and direct funds accordingly.

All administrative expenses are covered by the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle. As a result, 100 percent of the money raised by Chronicle Season of Sharing Fund goes directly to help our neighbors in the communities we serve.

*Months of rent are an approximation.

Together WE HELPED...

Maurice O'Guinn struggled to fill the gap the pandemic left in his budget by working multiple ride-hailing gigs but ultimately fell behind. He worked hard to make sure his son was not burdened with the stress of knowing about their overdue bills. Now he is back in the game thanks to a financial assist with his housing.
