Our 2024-2025
Annual Report

SEASON OF
SHARING
FUND
Neighbors Help Neighbors

evelyn & walter
HAAS JR. fund

San Francisco Chronicle

Everyone deserves a home.

We believe that an unexpected financial crisis should never mean losing your home.

So every day, through your support of Season of Sharing Fund, you give Bay Area neighbors a way to provide life-changing support to each other when it's needed most. When we meet the moment, you stabilize a person or family that could otherwise spiral downward.

Your donations make it possible for us to provide timely assistance, so a one-time emergency doesn't have lasting consequences. And a household remains housed long after the crisis passes.

An unexpected crisis can happen to anyone, and yet you'd be surprised to know how many of our Bay Area neighbors have less than $400 in savings to navigate unplanned emergencies. When people don't have a financial safety net, they live in fear of losing everything because of a loss of a job, unplanned medical bills, or a family emergency.

At Season of Sharing Fund, we believe that helping neighbors in crisis isn't just kind, it's how we keep our communities thriving. This year your gifts made it possible to support nearly 5,000 families with housing assistance and provide millions of meals for people facing hunger.

As always, every dollar donated goes directly to prevent homelessness and assist local individuals and families in crisis. All of our administrative expenses are covered by the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle. As a result, all money raised by Season of Sharing Fund goes directly toward housing, food, and critical needs for our Bay Area neighbors.

This coming year is likely to be the most challenging year we have ever faced, and it will take all of us throughout the Bay Area to support one another with kindness and care. We know that when unexpected crisis strikes, it's no match for you and the generous heart of the Bay Area. Thank you for joining us in responding to the moment with inspiring consideration for your fellow neighbors.

With much gratitude,

Kevin Swanson
Executive Director

It was a bridge, and that's what I pray for,
for veterans or families or anyone that's on the street.

– Raymond, School Aide

*A program like that is vital.
It's so appreciated.*

Army veteran Raymond works as an aide at Coleman Elementary School. His natural optimism dwindled last summer when due to a bureaucratic glitch, his VA housing voucher was delayed, causing him to miss a rent payment on his apartment. He feared eviction and that the housing stability he had finally achieved was about to be upended. Raymond received much-needed rental assistance from Season of Sharing Fund and happily returned to school in the fall.

If I walk a block, it hurts.

A preschool teacher of three decades, Irma was chasing after a boy in her care when she tumbled, dislodging several disks in her neck and spine. Chronic pain forced her to give up teaching, a job she loved. Living on a fixed income, she was left with limited options when her apartment complex became infested with rats. Season of Sharing Fund helped cover the security deposit so that she could move to a safer apartment.

I never want to see (cancer) again because I went through a lot, a lot.

Two years into her retirement, Olivia received a difficult diagnosis: she had an aggressive form of stomach cancer. Her pension couldn't cover the $250 co-pays, multiple surgeries and chemotherapy that her body needed. After selling valuables and borrowing money from extended family, she was still struggling to afford her apartment in San Jose. Season of Sharing Fund covered her rent for a couple months, giving her peace of mind when she needed it most. "I'm very grateful, very grateful for this help."

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

KEEPING BAY AREA FAMILIES HOUSED, CARED FOR AND NOURISHED

Generally, 85 percent of our total funds are distributed for housing assistance and critical needs, and the remaining 15 percent is allocated to Bay Area food banks for responsive pantry services. In order to meet real-time needs and be responsive to community crises, we work closely with our county partners and direct funds accordingly.

All administrative expenses are covered by the Evelyn and Walter Haas, Jr. Fund and the San Francisco Chronicle. As a result, 100 percent of the money raised by Season of Sharing Fund goes directly to help our neighbors in all nine counties of the Bay Area.

*Months of rent are an approximation.

We never know if it's going to be one of us.

Jaime's life changed forever when his daughter Maria was born three months early, leading to major health challenges. He and his wife turned to prayer and support from family to endure the challenging situation. Season of Sharing Fund helped cover the rent for a couple months to help them get back on their feet. After multiple surgeries, Maria was finally able to eat and swallow on her own. She finally went home a full year after being born.
